ELEPHONE EXCHANGE The Great Northern Telegraph Company (amalgamated with the Oriental Telephone Company, Limited, as regards Telephone Lines in Hongkong and China), with transfer of "letters patent," for the use of improvements in Telephones invented by Thomas ELVA EDISON, ALEXANDER GRAHAM ARNHOLD WHITE, FREDERIC Allen Gower, &c., &c.

Hongkong with its vast perty, is essentially a place where a wellconducted Telephone Exchange, will be of the greatest use, and in laying this Prospectus before the Public, the Company hopes that it may count upon the general support not only of the merchants and professional members of the Community, but also of the different Government Departments in order to render the service as efficient as possible. The Exchange will be worked in the following way, viz a Head Office will be established in the central part of the town provided with the best Telephone appliances according to the newest and most approved European and American inventions. Each subscriber will be supplied with a complete set of Instruments, and will be put in direct communication with the central office by separato wires.

It should distinctly be understood that the messages are not spoken to the Central Office, and thence transmitted to the person to be communicated with, but the two wires are simply switched together, thus forming one continuous line, over which conversation can be carried with perfect case and privacy. The Central Office will, if practicable, be open to the general public, so that any person can thence communicate with the Subscribers. For this service non-subscribers would have to pay a small fee according to the time they occupy the wire. The Telephones used by the Company are the Combination-Bell-Edison. THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishof this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style; but stightly modified in certain details. THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East; is issued at intervals of two months, such number con taining about 60 octave pages, occasionally, illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter. The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid-per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customa, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet; the Eastern Archivelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Porare admissible. Endoavours are made to present a resume in each works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review

Notes and Replies are classified togother as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or uppublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Redicutor July and August, 1875; is at hand. It says that forty-two paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what selidlars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is Ideno worth the price of the Leview. Addiers China Review, Hongkong, Northern

Christian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- " This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been not on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on thing and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in Chins. Theoresent publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a pesition, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been hestowed of late years; upon the investigation of Chinege literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of informaation, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable : and contributions of smel interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Uninese. Customs, corps, and the missionary body. -among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship, is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Leview by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In. Sa paper on Lr. Leggo's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is describedly given; an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems, and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the carear of the Chinese poet statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-plo, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributious on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will

This paper is now issued every The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports. It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing. The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented he the Chinese, - consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 cories. The advantages offered to advertipe is are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find
